A pity they didn't stick to the book trilogy closer as that is often a forgotten Disney movie. It could have been superbly epic in a hay day time of space operas and fantasy film genres. Mainly the end showed off the future dragons and the look of Pete's new dragon. I wish there had been more commentary on how they came up with some ideas.

The Art of Disney's Dragons | Inside the Magic

The Art of Disney's Dragons is essentially a sketchbook that features character designs and sketches for dragons that you may have seen in Disney films. These artworks were created traditionally, back in a time when digital painting was still in its infancy. I love the caricature style of the dragons, designed for animation.
