For us and for our salvation?

People by nature want to boast in their own abilities, efforts, and achievements. Therefore, the cross of Christ is an offense to everyone. In this lab, John Piper looks at why we resist the message of the cross, as well as what the good news of the gospel says to our self-righteousness.

Why Theology Can't Save Us, And Other Essays on Being Gay ...

Why did God save me? I know of no more difficult a theological question to deal with than this one. I've been studying theology for many years, and I still can't come up with any exhaustive reason to explain why God would save me, or anyone else for that matter. Some people give a very simple answer to this question.

Why Theology Cant Save Us And Other Essays On Being Gay ...

Be committed to having a right theology, but be as committed to having a warm theology — a growing, humble, and heartfelt intimacy with God. Do not simply search the Scriptures for soteriology, but search for salvation — the eternal life — that is only found in the flesh, blood, and person of Jesus Christ (John 5:39). Tithe your theology.

Theology graduate student Nicole Sotelo of Harvard always had a problem with atonement theology because it let Jesus do all the saving. "I understand the cross and the death of Jesus to be the result of his living a life of trying to bring salvation to earth," she says.

Why doesn't God just save everyone? | CARM.org

This encounter teaches us that... Religion can't save you because to enter God's eternal kingdom you need the new birth by the Holy Spirit. The story of Jesus' encounter with Nicodemus runs from 3:1-21, but somewhere after 3:12, Nicodemus fades out as John records Jesus' words about the Son of Man being lifted up as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness.

Why Did God Save Me? by R.C. Sproul

There has been considerable discussion as to why this situation exists. One contributing factor was the Russian disinformation campaign designed to undermine faith in US institutions, including the media. Part of this effort was designed to make Americans believe that truth is unknowable, and to give up.

Photo: Liu Jie/Xinhua/Getty Images. The Federal Reserve is the United States' first line of defense against a recession. Unlike Congress, which controls taxes and government spending, the Fed can make changes in interest rates on a moment's notice — even late on a Sunday afternoon, as it did on March 15. But monetary policy has its limits.

Why Religion Can't Save Us But Jesus Christ Can

Why can't technology save us from ourselves? Man started developing technology as a tool during the stone age. Tools like spears and axes would help cavemen to catch and eat food. Later in the iron age, man would develop industrial technology for weapons of war by forging swords and shields out of iron and other metals.

Here's Why the Federal Reserve Can't Save Us From a ...

In short, you won't get the blessing of salvation through religious rituals or by keeping the Law. Rather, God forgives all our sins and credits Christ's righteousness to us if we put our faith in Jesus and His shed blood. Religion can't save you, but Jesus can.

You Cannot Serve Both God and Theology | Desiring God

If He can do this, why does He not move the hearts of all people so they get saved? After all, doesn't the Bible tell us that God does not want any to perish (2 Pet. 3:9)? Though this is a difficult theological topic and it is worth a lot more discussion, the quick and easy answer is that God has not designed the course of history so that all people will be saved.

Why Technology Can't Save Us From Ourselves -- Yet ...

You are right about salvation by faith alone. But you fall short on how one is saved. We are not saved by our works. Faith through our obedience to God (John 14:15) will produce good works and save us. There are works of God that save us but not works of man. To be saved one must accept the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Acts 2) and be Baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, Mark 16:16)

Why Theology Cant Save Us

Look at the first part of verse 20: "Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in His sight." This verse gives the reason why every mouth is stopped and why the whole world is condemned. And the reason is we're sinners, and the law can't save us. The law can't save us, it can't acquit us, it can't justify us.
